

The Father's Love Is Deep and Wide

Brian Moss

Cm

The Fath-er's love is deep and wide for the Son and for His bride; And His
The truth of God was test-ed, tried, flesh was torn, they pierced His side. Through the
The Sav-ior calls our souls to bend, not to our will but to His end. And while His Not by our life, not by our death, not by the words we fill with breath, not by the grace has been out - poured through the pas - sion of our Lord. Down the road and up the crown, his blood did flow, go - ing where we could not go. Sav - ior God, the Wound-ed grace does sat - is - fy, He bids us come, to come and die. The tab - le stained with truth and work our hands have done, not through our daugh-ters or our sons. Not by the trea - sure that we hill let - ting go of His own will; for the sake of all the King sings the song we can - not sing. A - dam died, but Christ now grace, the cha - lice poured and set in place. Hold the cup and lift it give do we gain the right to live. The on - ly way we will know lost, grace not cheap, but with a cost. lives. We have sinned still He for - gives.

high now drink with me we go to die.
life is through the One named Je - sus Christ.